

World of wikis

1 Signing up for an account

You can get an account by signing up at <http://wiki.zoho.com>

2 Logging in

Go to <http://wiki.zoho.com> and sign in.

3 Subscribing to a wiki

You will be invited by email to join other people's wikis, or you can invite them to join your own.

4 Creating a wiki

Your account automatically sets you up with your own wiki. You can create lots more when you're ready

5 Choosing who can see your wiki

If you control a wiki, then Settings will appear in your dashboard menu and you can invite (and delete) contributors and decide who can view the wiki.

6 Let the world see

Your wiki will be accessible to the world via the web address <http://eday.wiki.zoho.com> for example, if your username is eday.

The world of wikis awaits!
